

FRAMEWORK

PHOTOGRAPHED BY MADELEINE KIMBALL | 2025

Beam by beam, decision by decision, a life is built. Its true strength isn't in what's visible, but in what quietly holds everything in place. In the woods, branches cross like the ribs of a cathedral, light threading through what we once mistook for emptiness. A framework is part strength, part surrender — built faith in what you can't always see. Printed in Brooklyn on museum-grade archival matte paper — acid-free and lignin-free for preservation and tonal clarity.
