A study in natural structure, Framework reveals the unseen architecture of the forest. Branches intersect to create a layered composition of line, rhythm, and light, where the canopy reads less as wilderness than as construction. Reduced to its essential forms, the photograph invites a slower way of seeing—finding order within complexity and permanence within nature's own design. Printed in Brooklyn on museum-grade archival matte paper—acid-free and lignin-free for exceptional longevity and tonal depth.

ARTIST BIO

Madeleine Kimball is a designer and photographer whose work explores form through nature, landscape, and structure. Presented through Samuel Madeleine, her collectible furniture and fine art prints share a language of proportion, materiality, and modern elegance. Drawing from Equine, Tropics, Arbor, and Yacht & Sailing, her photographic works explore structure, light, and form through a contemporary lens.
